Nationalism Realism Constructivism Political Theory Marxism. In the immense field of scholarly work regarding defining nationhood, a raging debate exists between the conservative view of the nation and the constructivist view. A clear and definitive change in the conception of the 'realness' of the nation can be seen throughout the historiographical study of nationalism.

Classical nationalism is the political program that sees the creation and maintenance of a fully sovereign state owned by a given ethno-national group ("people" or "nation") as a primary duty of each member of the group. Starting from the assumption that the appropriate (or "natural") unit of culture is an ethno-nation, it claims that a primary duty of each member is to abide by one's recognizably ethno-national culture in all cultural matters.
